

2024 CONSTRUCTION, OLYMPIC PENINSULA

A new US 101 bridge is being built across the Elwha River in Clallam County, replacing the existing bridge that is 98 years old. The new bridge will open to travelers summer 2024.

In 2024, we will continue vital work on preservation, public safety, and fish habitat projects across the Olympic Peninsula. Construction projects will affect the flow of traffic on US 101, 12 and State Routes 8, 116, 109, 108, 104, and 19.

Not only do these state highways serve residents, businesses and visitors to the Olympic Peninsula and Pacific Ocean Beaches, they connect communities to each other and other areas of Puget Sound, making way for the movement of goods and services across western Washington.

To help people plan and navigate the dozens of work zones around the Olympic Peninsula, we have launched an online open house that highlights projects by county.

The online open house will be updated as new construction information, such as road closure dates, become available.
